Why We Exist

Burnout isn't just about hours. Most attempts to fix it add more to-do lists, yet the real issue is deeper. Physicians gradually lose their connection, identity, and community. Clubs & Scrubs brings doctors back together in a relaxed atmosphere on the golf course, fostering genuine connections—no webinars, no lectures, just laughter and camaraderie, restoring what medicine often strips away.

The Audience

Physicians are among the most discerning audiences, often disengaging from traditional advertising. Clubs & Scrubs offers a unique environment where they engage directly with brands they trust, fostering meaningful connections.

Real Engagement

Connecting with physicians requires more than just visibility; it necessitates genuine interaction. When physicians attend Clubs & Scrubs, they come seeking a relaxed atmosphere that prioritizes personal connections over corporate messaging. This event provides a rare opportunity for brands to build trust through authentic engagement. Physicians often guard their time and respond best to experiences that resonate with their professional journeys. By participating in a golf tournament designed specifically for them, sponsors can meet physicians face-to-face, fostering relationships that advertisements cannot achieve. This genuine interaction creates a lasting impact, allowing brands to resonate deeply within the medical community and enhancing overall visibility. Your presence not only introduces your brand but also shows that you value and understand the challenges that physicians face.
